2. To determine ethics reports in Jawa Pos on June-July 2014, the author uses Islamic mass communication's ethic which concerns about fairness, accuracy of information, freedom of responsible, as well as constructive criticism that are commonly referred to amar ma'rûf nahi munkar. The results analysis of news in the perspective of construction of Islamic mass communication's ethic in pre-election news in Jawa Pos already applying the fairness, accuracy of information and freedom of responsible as a form of professional work they do. However, for constructive criticism still needs to be improved, considering itself a function of the mass media is to do social criticism. Accuracy of information in pre-election news in Jawa Pos June-July 2014 edition is good. There are 35 of news through confirmation from news source. Furthermore 3 of news not yet confirm over news source. About justice in Jawa Pos was almost fulfilling the element of justice. About freedom-responsibility also positive. Whereas the construction criticism still need to improve because from 38 of news, only 7 of news that contain about constructive criticism.

B. SUGGESTIONS

Related with result, therefore some suggestions which will be convey by author:

1. For journalist when convey news to reader in mass media, ought to based on fact and have to hiding towards value and ethic.
2. Ethic of news include the political news here should be aware of personal media actors are built through a growing appreciation of the value in the community, especially religious value. Practice and appreciation of religious teaching be important to build awareness of religious ethics where these consciousness which can be main factor of moral attitudes realization, including mass media activities.
3. For society, all of media activities in essence are oriented over society. Society as media user is must be increase the critical power when read mass media.
4. For next researcher, there are many problems which related with mass communication ethic. Because of it, this theme is needed to develop further for others researcher. For example, mass communication ethic to advertisement in mass media and other rubric in mass media when study use perspective construction of Islamic mass communication ethic.
