

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION

A. Conclusion

The research conclusion is presented according with the data which have been analyzed in the previous chapter. From all the data analysis about implementation of Self-Correction to maximizing the accuracy of students' vowel pronunciation (a classroom action research at the XI IPA 3 Full Day School students of MAN 1 Kebumen in the academic year of 2013/2014), it can be concluded that:

1. The implementation of Self-Correction to maximizing the accuracy of students' vowel pronunciation could be applied in teaching and learning pronunciation. It can help the students to be more independent in correcting their own error in pronunciation.
2. According to the data from result of tests and observation which had been done and analyzed in the previous chapter, it showed that the implementation of Self-Correction could maximize the students' ability to pronounce the vowel sounds . It could be seen that implementation of Self-Correction in teaching learning pronunciation is more interesting to the students. Besides students' participant in teaching learning process was increasing, Self-Correction also improved their ability in vowel pronunciation. It showed an improvement on student's score from the first cycle to the third cycle.

B. Suggestion

1. Teacher

Teacher can apply Self-Correction technique to be a variety in teaching and learning either media or technique to solve students' problem in learning process. Self-Correction technique is recommended for English teacher to teach pronunciation because it can improve the students' ability in pronunciation.

2. Students

The implementation of Self-Correction could improve students' ability in pronunciation. Self-Correction could help students to know their error pronunciation.

3. School

Self-Correction could help and give references in improving teaching learning process.

4. researcher

This study could be references to other researcher that would research with the same subject.

Finally, the writer realizes that this paper is far from being perfect. Because of that, constructive critics and advice are really expected for the perfection of the thesis. Hopefully, this thesis is useful for all of us. Amen.
