Assalamu'alaikum guys.. I am standing here want to share about my hobby. Do you know, everyone has hobby..of course. I have many hobbies, one of them is writing. Writing is my hobby. I really like writing but not academic writing. I like writing news, every time i should seek out informations for my writing.. uhm.. but, it is challenging, i like it. Writing has so many benefits. It can help us remembering what we have studied or thought. Whether you want to improve your vocabulary, keep track of your dreams and other benefits you can get if you wanna write. To make good writing, we should do deep contemplation. Understanding many materials is also very important if we want to make good writing.. uhm.. eh, ya.. we also can get much money if we are productive. We can send our writing to newspaper or even publisher if we want to make book. We can see, right.. many people who are productive are rich. They get much money from their writing.. uhm.. that if we see the benefit to get money. I really hope to be big and famous writer. So that, i always train every day to make my writing better.. oh ya.. writing is eternal. It means that our writing can be read by people after us. People after us will know our mind, our perception and it is interesting i think. It is like drawing history, i mean we give contribution to history through writing.. and if we want to see from religion perspective, we call it as amal jariyah if we make useful writing. How much reward we can get from Allah, right.. uhm.. all of that also becomes my reason why i am still writing. Beside i am happy, writing also gives so many benefits. I want to give eternal contribution to everyone in every era, that's cool right.. hehe. I will always write, i hope you do so.. thank you..

My hobbies are reading and listening to music. I like reading since 5th grade elementary school... uhm..my hobby is started when I got a task to summarize ( and retell the content of a novel without using text. Since then, I have become an avid reader. But... eee... now not only novels, comics and textbooks are interesting to read for me. I enjoyed reading because reading has many benefits... we can study from great people even great people in past through their writing. We can know their view and opinion... uhm.. and my second hobby is listening to the music. I like listening to music when I do my homework, when I don't have anything to do, or sometimes when I eat. I like almost all types of music, pop, country, rock n roll, and other type of music. I like to hear them because some songs bring me back to memories in past. It also gives me energy to do my activity.. uhm.. Usually, i like hearing music when i'm doing my homework. The music gives me spirit to do the homework.. and.. listening to new songs is awesome, because you haven't heard the song before. This is the reason why i like doing this hobby.
