✓ Adverbial of place: in the garden, Cinderella's house, in the village.

5. Example

Cinderella

Once upon a time there was a girl named Cinderella. She lived with her bad step-mother and two step-sisters. She had to do all the household chores.

One day, the King invited all the ladies in the Kingdom to go to a ball in the palace. He wanted to find the Crown Prince a wife. The step-sister went to the ball that night with their mother. Cinderella was left alone. She cried because she actually wanted to go to the ball, too. Just then a fairy godmother came. With her magic wand, she gave Cinderella a coach, two horses, and footmen. She also gave Cinderella a lovely dress to wear to the ball and a pair of glass slippers. She told Cinderella to come home before midnight.

At the ball, Cinderella danced all night with the Prince. The Prince fell in love with her. At midnight, Cinderella ran home. Unfortunately, one of her glass slippers slipped off at the door. She did not have time to put it back on. The Prince was sad as he could not find Cinderella again that night. The next day, the Prince and his men brought along the glass slipper. They went all over the Kingdom to search for the owner.

After searching for a long time, finally, they came to Cinderella's house. The slipper fit her. The Prince was very happy to find Cinderella again. They got married and lived happily ever after.

The Hungry Mouse

A mouse was having a very bad time. She could find no food at all. She looked here and there, but there was no food, and she grew very thin.

At last the mouse found a basket, full of corn. There was a small hole in the basket, and she crept in. She could just get through the hole. Then she began to eat the corn. Being very hungry, she ate a great deal, and went on eating and eating. She had grown very fat before she felt that she had had enough. When the mouse tried to climb out of the basket, she could not. She was too fat to pass through the hole. "How shall I climb out?" said the mouse. "oh, how shall I climb out?"

Just then a rat came along, and he heard the mouse. "Mouse!" said the rat, "If you want to climb out of the basket, you must wait till you have grown as thin as you were when you went in."

THEORY

What is Narrative Text?

Narrative text is an imaginative story which has purpose to entertain the reader or listener.

There are many kinds of stories, such as fairy tales, fable, myth, and legends. Those kinds of stories belong to narrative. Narratives sometimes are written to teach or to change attitudes because some narratives contain moral value for the readers.

Example Slide – Story

Once upon a time there was a king and queen who lived in a golden castle with their beautiful daughter. One night an ugly ogre captured the beautiful princess and locked her up in his tall, dark tower.

"Help me!"
"Roar!"

The king and queen were very sad. They promised to give a bag of gold to the knight that rescued the princess. "Please save our princess!" "We'll save the princess!"

All the knights in the land wanted to rescue the princess. They rode to the tower as fast as they could.

"Help me!"
"Roar!"

On the right side of the slide, there are four boxes containing grammar categories: "Action Verbs", "Conjunctions", "Adverb of time and place", and "Adjectives".
